“Pastor Mark’s Blog – March 24th

Don’t Forget, the clocks go forward on Sunday at 1am! I must admit I love gaining an hour but not losing an hour! I was listening to a Radio station this week and one of the listeners messaged in saying why can’t the clocks go forward on Friday afternoon, so everyone can go home earlier from work that day. A great idea! But sadly, it will not happen.

Proverbs 31:25 (ESV) says “Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come”. It is talking about a woman who honors the Lord in her life and has confidence in God about all her tomorrows. A lesson to us all!

I would like to highlight that we are starting up again our monthly Church Family Fellowship afternoons on Sabbath April 7th. The first one will be held at Great Yarmouth church, but these are equally for those at Lowestoft. This is an opportunity for us all to come together in fellowship on Sabbath afternoon especially with the long summer afternoons fast approaching. It is a wise use of our time!
