

Have you made a Will?
Do you need to make a new Will?
In case anything should happen to you, have you made provision for the care of your children in your Will?

Unless you do, there is no guarantee they would be cared for by someone of your choice.

Pastor Mark's Blog – February 10th

“Thus, says the LORD, “you shall not go up or fight against your relatives the people of Israel. Every man return to his home, for this thing is from me.” So, they listened to the word of the LORD and went home again, according to the word of the LORD”. (1 Ki 12:24 ESV).

There are times in our walk with the Lord when a very direct word from Him will come to us, that surprises us or goes against the grain or the way we have been thinking or planning. At such times we must try to trust and obey and say humbly "Father always knows best".

A pastor I listen to regularly via his podcast says, “To fear God is to know God, to love God, to serve God, to obey God, they are all synonyms”. I think he has a great point. It is about living our daily life with such a mind-set wherever the Lord has planted us all of our todays.
