Pastor Mark's Blog – March 31st

How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity! Psalm 133:1

This week, Norma and I had the chance to attend a local secondary school music concert. Becca Rogers took part in it. We thoroughly enjoyed all the performances and were very impressed with the standard of those so young, as well as the participation from teachers. It was an enjoyable, relaxing and refreshing evening.

One thing that stood out was the diversity in ages, abilities, instruments and voices, and yet when it all came together, each taking their part, it sounded wonderful. It seemed to be a good analogue of what we should aspire to in church. Our focus is Christ and His kingdom, with Easter especially reminding us that He is Risen! We have so much diversity in our churches, age, background, skills, experiences, and that is a great opportunity for us to come together in one heart and mind around the chief purpose of life, "Love God, Love People".
