Pastor Mark's Blog – April 7th

And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 (ESV)

I was struck reading this Friday morning that Paul uses the term imitators, referring to himself and to the Lord in the same sentence. At first that can come over as a very bold sentence. Imitators can also be translated follower. In 1 Corinthians 11:1 Paul writes "Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ". I think that is the real meaning here, following and imitating Christ.

Today we start a 10-part series on the Beatitudes. Each Beatitude starts with the word, Blessed. The word "blessed" refers to those who are, or will be, happy, fortunate, or "to be congratulated" because of God's response to their belief, behavior or situation. The Beatitudes have an "Already and Not Yet" promise for our lives. It can also be said that the Beatitudes show the conversion process of a person to imitating and following Christ.
