Pastor Mark's Blog – April 28th

Jesus Presented at the Temple

And when the time came for their purification according to the Law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (Luke 2:22 (ESV))

Today in the Great Yarmouth Church we celebrate the dedication of Seraphina Keshishyan. These are joyful events in thanks for new life given by the Lord and dedicated back to Him. A dedication is a commitment by parents to raise their child in the ways of the Lord and also a commitment by the Church to pray for and help in the nurturing of that child. It is a solemn and joyful responsibility.

We see the practice of dedicating the first born in the Old Testament and then in the New Testament we read the account of Jesus dedication in the temple in Jerusalem. Jesus parents are the ultimate example of parenting in the Bible. They were given such a responsibility and they dedicated their lives to it. There is no bigger parental and church responsibility than raising the next generation.
