

Have you made a Will?

Do you need to make a new Will?

In case anything should happen to you, have you made provision for the care of your children in your Will?

Unless you do, there is no guarantee they would be cared for by someone of your choice.

Did you know that the Church provides a FREE confidential Will-making service without obligation for its members?

Pastor Mark's Blog – June 2nd

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Today we end our series on the Beatitudes. It is no accident that the first and the last Beatitudes end with the same promise. It is an assurance of membership in the kingdom. As one writer puts it “those who experience the eight qualifications for citizenship here enumerated are worthy of a place in the kingdom”.

I hope you have been blessed by this series. We will continue through the Sermon on the Mount, starting next Sabbath, which includes a special joint service at Lowestoft Adventist Church where we will also celebrate Communion.
