Pastor Mark's Blog – 14th July

Our current “Sermon on the Mount” series is looking at the six sayings of Jesus recorded in Mathew 5:21 through Mathew 5:48. They all include Jesus saying, “But I say to you...” and are all about truly healthy relationships.

Whilst on vacation I began to re-read a book I read some years back by Scott Rodin called “The Steward Leader”. The following quote really struck me, “As God’s people, we are called to reflect the image of our Creator God through whole, redeemed relationships at four levels—with God, with our self, with our neighbour and with creation—bringing glory to God and practicing in each the on-going work of the faithful steward”. The six sayings of Jesus we are exploring over the next weeks are all about whole, redeemed relationships!
