Do you need to make a new Will?
In case anything should happen to you, have you made provision for the care of your children in your Will?

Unless you do, there is no guarantee they would be cared for by someone of your choice.

Pastor Mark's Blog – 28th July

Last Sunday Norma and I attended a Muslim wedding in Wigan. The son of a long-time school friend was married. A Muslim wedding ceremony is called “Nikah”. The picture above shows how the Bride and Groom sat during the whole ceremony and reception. We were treated like those of the Groom’s family, even sitting at the front with the Parents. We felt slightly embarrassed but appreciated the honour and hospitality.

The ceremony and reception were very lavish. The Bride was adorned from head to toe in a traditional Muslim wedding gown. The look on the Groom’s face was priceless. Jesus says we (the church) are His Bride. Jesus prepares His Bride, He dresses His Bride and He presents His Bride, without spot or wrinkle. What a celebration it will be on that great day!
